

February 12, 2008

SUBJECT: Request by staff for Continuance of 2007-0754 – Study Issue: Parking Requirements for Residential and Commercial Developments. A review of the City's current parking requirements on commercial and multi-family (townhomes, condominiums, apartments) housing projects, and parking requirements needed for future developments.

REPORT IN BRIEF

Staff is recommending continuing the Study Issue: Parking Requirements for Residential and Commercial Developments from the City Council meeting of February 12, 2008 to the meeting of February 26, 2008. Participants in the study have been notified of this change in schedule.

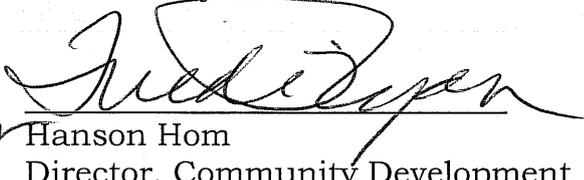

PUBLIC CONTACT

This item was previously noticed and continuance of this item in a public hearing serves as official notification to the public. However, staff will also send a courtesy public notice for the City Council meeting of February 26, 2008 to participants in the study.

RECOMMENDATION

Continue this item to February 26, 2008.

Reviewed by:

for Hanson Hom

Director, Community Development

Reviewed by: Trudi Ryan, Planning Officer

Prepared by: Noren Caliva, Project Planner

Approved by:

for
Amy Chan
City Manager