The term will be effective October 17, 2012. Following the appointment, the staff liaison will provide a commission-specific orientation and the new member is required to take the Oath of Office, sign the Model of Excellence, attend the Board and Commission Orientation hosted by the Office of the City Clerk, and complete ethics training. A ceremonial oath will be offered to the incoming member.

EXISTING POLICY

_Council Policy 7.2.19, Boards and Commissions_ states:

The Mayor will announce by board or commission each vacancy including its term, and then will read each applicant’s name. Council will vote on each applicant. The candidate receiving the most affirmative votes and at least four affirmative votes will be appointed. Should no candidate receive at least four affirmative votes, the vacancy will remain. The process is repeated for each board or commission.

Resolving ties:

Should a tie between the candidates receiving the most affirmative votes occur, the affected applicants will be voted on again. If a tie still remains, and the affected applicants each have received at least four affirmative votes, the Mayor would ask the city attorney to draw the name of the person to be appointed.

If vacancies still exist after the appointment process is conducted, staff shall inform Council of alternative courses of action.
