Choosing the Camp That's Right for Your Child

- Review all camp choices in this section. Camps are designed to cater to specific age ranges.
 - This summer, traditional camps (Quest, Voyager and Pioneer) have been designed to grow right along with your camper, by including a new age overlap. This will enable families with campers, ages 7 or 11, to choose to register with younger campers or older campers. By doing this, families can select the experience they believe their camper is prepared for. The choice is yours!
- Attend the Sunnyvale Camp Fair with your child to meet staff and ask questions.
- Talk with your child to see what fits his or her interests.
- We suggest starting with a traditional camp, designed for specific age groups and offering the most variety of activities.
- For specific interests or to add variety to your camper's summer, check out themed arts, business, cooking, science, sports, technology and performing arts camps.
- For teen campers, check out the new Leader in Training Camp (page 21), or cool technology and business camps.
- Register your child in several Sunnyvale camps for a summer of fun right in your own backyard!

Summer Safari Camp (4 – 5 years)

Preschoolers enjoy a summer packed full of fun adventures. Each session introduces campers to different materials and hands-on learning opportunities through art, music, language, reading and motor-skill activities. This program is a play-based preschool camp in a safe environment, which helps your camper to develop social and basic academic skills. Campers must be toilet trained prior to the first day of class.
