

The American Civil War: Looking Back After 150 Years

Dr. Libra Hilde, San Jose State University Professor and Civil War Expert, is presenting a five-part series
October 12, 2011 - February 8, 2012.

Wednesdays 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Sunnyvale Library Program Room

Oct. 12, 2011	Overview and Causes of the American Civil War
Nov. 16, 2011	Civil War Combat – Why Fight?
Dec. 7, 2011	Western Theater and Native Americans
Jan. 11, 2012	Emancipation and Soldiers’ Experiences
Feb. 8, 2012	Legacy &amp; Memories of the American Civil War

This program series has been generously supported by the Friends of the Sunnyvale Public Library

On March 7, 2012 at 7:00 p.m., historian Jean Libby will relate stories about abolitionist John Brown’s family in the Santa Clara Valley. Direct descendent Alice Keesey Mecoy will tell of local genealogical ties. African American historian John W. Templeton will discuss local connections to the Underground Railroad during the Civil War.

Sunnyvale Public Library, 665 W. Olive Ave., Sunnyvale, CA 94086
(408) 730-7300
www.sunnyvalelibrary.org