Venue Details

Sunnyvale's Evenings of Cultural Arts series, now in its 23rd season, is a favorite with audiences and artists alike. We know you'll enjoy the exceptional talent on our stage and our casual atmosphere. We warmly welcome you!

All Evenings of Cultural Arts performances are Saturdays, 8 p.m. Sunnyvale Theatre is conveniently located just one block west of El Camino Real at the Sunnyvale Community Center, 550 E. Remington Drive. Plenty of free parking is available in the lot off Michelangelo, adjacent to the theater. Seating is general admission. Every seat in the house is a great one.

The City of Sunnyvale encourages persons with disabilities to participate in any of our Community Services programs. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate persons with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you require special accommodations, please call (408) 730-7725, TDD (408) 730-7501, at least five days in advance of the program or activity.

CELTIC BARD BROUGHT TO LIFE

Patrick Ball – O'Carolan's Farewell to Music

A Sunnyvale favorite, Celtic harper and storyteller Patrick Ball returns with his much-requested solo show, O'Carolan's Farewell to Music. Crafted by Ball and UC Berkeley Theater Professor Peter Glazer, the show recounts the life of Ireland's most celebrated composer, the blind harper Turlough O'Carolan. Ball tells the story as O'Carolan's friend and traveling companion, poet Charles McCabe, and performs the composer's famous melodies on his rare, wire-strung harp.

BAROQUE TO BLUES

Metales M5 – Brass Spectacular

Hailed as "the best thing to come out of Mexico since Tequila," Mexico's leading brass quintet makes its Bay Area debut with a show unlike any you've ever seen. Their dazzling Brass Spectacular features the very best of Metales M5: traditional Mexican folklorico music, classical work by Bach, Mozart, Wagner and Orff, Dixieland jazz and so much more. These five virtuoso musicians' Latin American charm and playful humor have made them perfect cultural ambassadors.

HITS OF WORLD WAR II

Swingin' Blue Stars – Remember the USO

The USS Hornet Museum's shipboard singers, The Swingin' Blue Stars, bring back the spirit of the 1940s and the harmony singing style of The Andrews Sisters. Remember the USO features patriotic music and Wartime hits like "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" and "Rum and Coca Cola." Founded in 2002 by Blue Star Moms whose children were serving overseas, the group continues to support U.S. troops and honor military veterans of every era.

GYPSY JAZZ FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Hot Club of San Francisco – Cool Yule

An instant favorite when their Le Jazz Hot foursome appeared here last year, the Hot Club of San Francisco is coming for Christmas this year! Picture the reindeer pulling a Gypsy caravan and famed guitarist Django Reinhart as the ghost of Christmas past. Favorite carols are transformed with wit and masterful playing: "Djingle Bells," a "Don Rodolfo" tango, and a red-hot "Sugar Rum Cherry"-style "Nutcracker Suite."

SCANDINAVIAN MUSIC WITH TEETH

Nykken – Fager Som En Ros

Despite the music diversity that abounds in the Bay Area, traditional Scandinavian sounds are still scarce. The local group Nykken, which released its debut CD last year, brings the startlingly fresh air of authenticity, with lilting songs in Swedish and Norwegian. Their unusual collection of instruments includes Swedish nyckelharpas, the fiddle-like Hardingfele, a rare Hardanger Cello d'Amour, cittra and, a well-loved, red button accordion handed down from a Norwegian grandfather.

MUSICAL ADVENTURE TRAVEL

Adam Marks – [interplay]

Drawing inspiration from adventure hits like Globe Trekker and Anthony Bourdain: No Reservations, critically acclaimed pianist Adam Marks travels the world in search of remarkable new solo piano works to share in a new, live musical travelogue. Sunnyvale hosts the [interplay] project's West Coast premiere, featuring contemporary works from Brazil, Singapore, Croatia and the United States, interspersed with video and commentary about the cultures' influence on the compositions.

HOT BLUEGRASS, COOL ORIGINALS

The Kathy Kallick Band – Time

A Bay Area bluegrass pioneer, Grammy Award-winning Kathy Kallick specializes in music that stands the test of time. This gifted singer and guitar player is renowned for her renditions of traditional tunes from the likes of Bill Monroe, Vern Williams and the Delmore Brothers. She's also a prolific composer whose story songs have timeless appeal. Kallick and her top-notch band will perform from their latest CD, Time, in an evening sure to pass lightning fast.

WESTERN ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR

Dave Stamey – Twelve Mile Road

A true singing cowboy, Dave Stamey transports listeners down a dusty trail with achingly beautiful Western ballads. Son of a Montana rancher, Stamey has worked as a cowboy, mule packer and dude wrangler. His latest album, Twelve Mile Road, was recently chosen as Album of the Year by the Western Music Association, which also voted him Male Performer of the Year, Entertainer of the Year and Songwriter of the Year.
