3. ORDINANCE
RTC 11-268
Certification of Environmental Impact Report and Adoption of Single-Use Carryout Bag Ordinance

Director of Environmental Services Department John Stufflebean presented the staff report.
Public hearing opened at 7:57 p.m. Diane Gleason spoke regarding the trend toward the banning of single-use plastic bags and recommended the ban apply to all retailers irregardless of size.

Michelle Philips asked Council to support the ban on plastic bags and recommended the charge for bags start at ten cents and increase to 25 cents.

Kim Jelfs spoke in support of the ban.

Dan Hafeman stated that at the Sustainability Commission he recommended the ban apply to all retail establishments with the exception of restaurants. Hafeman recommended the reporting requirements only be applied to the stores identified in the current staff proposal and that an enforcement rule be put in place to allow anyone to make a complaint.

Kevin Jackson asked Council to approve the ban.

Allison Chan, Save the Bay, urged Council to move forward with the ordinance and include all retail establishments.

Margaret Lawson demonstrated a number of reusable bags and encouraged support for the ban.

Arthur Schwartz spoke regarding a net bag he has used for 30 years. Schwartz encouraged applying the ban to all retail establishments and recommended keeping the price of bags fixed.

Barbara Fukumoto spoke in support of the ban on single-use bags and suggested starting with a bag charge of 15 cents for 99 retailers, with a June 2012 implementation, and phasing the ban to all retailers as soon as possible or within a year, with the bag charge to be raised to 25 cents later, consistent with the City of San Jose.
