SPEAK AND BE HEARD AT SUNNYVALE PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUNNYVALE, Calif. — Want to speak and be heard, to advance in a career or simply be a better communicator? Then come to Sunnyvale Public Library Wednesday, January 27, at 7 pm, for a program to improve your public speaking.

This interactive event, presented by the local Excalibur Toastmasters, will demonstrate how to organize a speech and use body position and vocal variety to persuade, inspire and entertain the audience. Come join the fun; no registration is necessary.

The Library is located at 665 West Olive Ave., across from City Hall. Free parking is always available, and VTA line 54 serves the Library. For more information about Library services and activities, visit www.sunnyvalelibrary.org or call the Reference Desk at (408) 730-7300, TDD (408) 730-7501.
