SUNNYVALE LIBRARY TO HOST ASIAN-INDIAN EVENT

SUNNYVALE, Calif. –Join in a fun afternoon activity when the Sunnyvale Public Library presents an Asian-Indian cultural event. On Sunday, May 23, at 2 p.m., children will have the opportunity to receive a henna design, make Indian crafts and learn rangoli. At 3 p.m., two performers from Bay Area Bhangra Empire Dancers will display their energetic dance and then teach dance steps to the audience.

More information on this children's program, as well as other Library events, is available on the Library's Web site at www.sunnyvalelibrary.org, or by calling the Children's Reference Desk at (408) 730-7300, TDD (408) 730-7501.
