DRAFTING CLAIMS FOR PATENT APPLICATIONS

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – What are the claims in a patent application? To learn about the legal requirements for claims in a patent application and how they are constructed, come to a talk at the Sunnyvale Public Library at 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 10.

Patent agent and former patent examiner Hari Kunamneni, will explain the common structure of a claim and how claims are supported by written description and drawings.

The Sunnyvale Public Library is located at 665 West Olive Ave., across from City Hall. Free parking is always available, and VTA line 54 serves the Library. For more information about Library services and activities, visit www.sunnyvalelibrary.org or call the Reference Desk at (408) 730-7300, TDD (408) 730-7501.
