OPERA SAN JOSE RETURNS TO SUNNYVALE PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – Spend a summer evening listening to beautiful music. Visit Sunnyvale Public Library’s annual “Evening with Opera San Jose,” on Thursday, June 30, at 7 p.m., and hear Opera San Jose artists perform previews from their upcoming 2011-2012 season.

Principal artists from the Opera San Jose resident company will showcase some of the greatest arias and ensembles in opera repertoire from the upcoming season, including Mozart’s Idomeneo, Leoncavallo’s Pagliacci, Poulenc’s La voix humaine, Verdi’s La traviata, and Gounod’s Faust. The evening will be hosted by Opera San José General Manager Larry Hancock, who will present an overview of the operas and offer his insights about the composers and their works.

The one-hour program is free and open to the public. No reservations are required, but seating is limited. The Library is located at 665 W. Olive Ave., across from City Hall. Free parking is always available, and VTA line 54 serves the Library. More information on Library programs and activities is available on the Library’s website at www.sunnyvalelibrary.org, or by calling the Library at (408) 730-7300, TDD (408) 730-7501.
