COPPER WIRE THEFTS HIT CITY OF SUNNYVALE

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – The City of Sunnyvale has been experiencing a rash of copper wire thefts from City light poles since November 1, 2011. The numerous thefts have resulted in losses of more than 16,000 feet of wire, valued at more than $21,000.

Sunnyvale Department of Public Safety (DPS) investigators say the suspects have committed the thefts mainly in the commercial areas of the City, including Persian Drive, Borregas, Weddel and Morse avenues, as well as the City-maintained greenbelt and Hetch Hetchy right-of-way. There has also been loss in the Lakewood Village area of the City.

Residents are asked to report any suspicious vehicles, subjects or activities by dialing 9-1-1.
