SUNNYVALE SETS FREE FORECLOSURE PREVENTION WORKSHOP

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – The City of Sunnyvale will present a free foreclosure prevention workshop Monday, January 30. The workshop will help arm homeowners with information that may help them avoid a foreclosure if they are in trouble with their home loan.

The foreclosure prevention workshop will be held at the Sunnyvale Public Library, 665 W. Olive Ave., and is scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m. For more information, contact Ernie DeFrenchi, the City's Affordable Housing Manager at (408) 730-2784, or by email to edefrenchi@ci.sunnyvale.ca.us. The workshop is being presented by the City of Sunnyvale and the Fair Housing Law Project, a project of the Law Foundation of Silicon Valley.
