SUNNYVALE DETECTIVES ARREST SUSPECT IN SEX CRIME AGAINST CHILD

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – On March 12, detectives from the Sunnyvale Department of Public Safety (DPS) were contacted by the father of a 13-year-old-girl with concerns about a relationship she was having with a youth sports coach. As a result of the initial information provided and through a subsequent investigation, detectives obtained an arrest warrant and search warrant for the suspect implicated in the crime.

On the morning of March 21, detectives arrested 36-year-old Emanuele Fabrizio at his residence in Sunnyvale. The search warrant was served on his apartment subsequent to the arrest. Fabrizio is currently being held at Santa Clara County Main Jail on the arrest warrant which had a bail amount of $1 million. The charges include lewd acts with a minor and sexual assault of a minor. Fabrizio is scheduled for arraignment in Palo Alto Superior Court on Friday afternoon.

If anyone has information related to this case, please contact Sunnyvale Detective Michael Mendoza at (408) 730-7130. Those persons wishing to remain anonymous may email their information to SVTIP@tipnow.org.
