SUNNYVALE DETECTIVES ARREST HOMICIDE SUSPECT

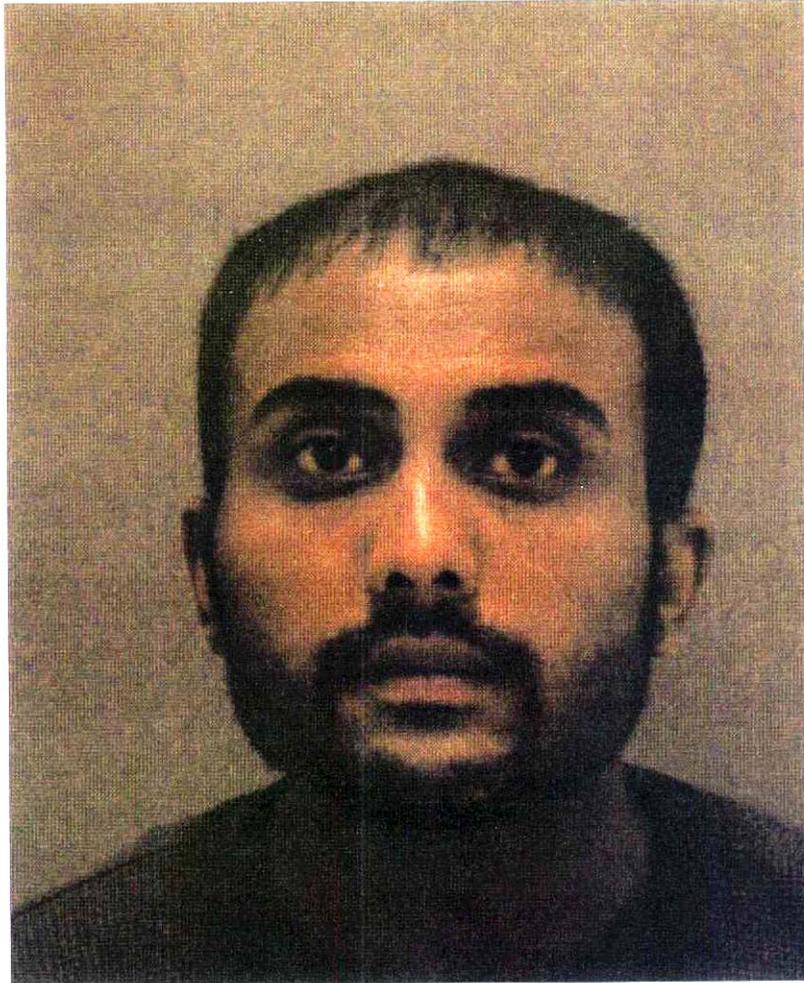

SUNNYVALE, Calif. — On March 25, 2012, 28-year-old Jennifer Flores was run over by a vehicle in which she had been a passenger. The subsequent investigation led detectives to seek a Ramey Warrant for the driver of the vehicle they identified as Pawanjit Singh, a 25-year-old San Jose resident. The investigation also revealed the suspect had fled to India the day after the incident.

Over the past several weeks, Sunnyvale detectives continued to work with members of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection and the suspect's attorney to get the suspect to return to the U.S. willingly. On the morning of May 30, Sunnyvale detectives received information the suspect had boarded a plane and he was expected to land at San Francisco International Airport (SFO) about 7 p.m. that evening. When the plane landed, the suspect was identified and taken into custody without incident. The suspect has been booked at Santa Clara County Main Jail on a Ramey Warrant with the bail set at $1,000,000. The suspect will be in court Friday (June 1) morning for arraignment.
