CITY OF SUNNYVALE NAMES COMMUNITY AWARD WINNERS

Award presentations to be made at August 26 Sunnyvale Centennial Celebration

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – The City of Sunnyvale has announced the winners of the annual Community Awards program. The Mayor and Councilmembers will honor the awardees on the second day of the City’s upcoming two-day Centennial Celebration at the Heritage Park Museum site.

Award nominations were accepted from the community this spring and were reviewed by a panel, which included former Community Awards winners. The 2012 awardees are: Johan Koning of the Sunnyvale Historical Society as the Outstanding Community Volunteer; Roger Havasy of the Sunnyvale Squares for Outstanding Contribution to the Arts; Richard Carmona of Homestead High School as the Outstanding Educator; Dan Hafeman for Outstanding Environmental Achievement; Josh Levin of Fremont High School as the Outstanding High School Senior; Outstanding Businessperson of the Year, Dr. Mary “Kate” Cameron of the Cameron Veterinary Hospital; and Sook Young “Sue” Kim as the Distinguished Resident of the Year.

Mayor Anthony “Tony” Spitaleri will present the special Mayor’s Award of Excellence following his State of the City address on Sunday, August 26 at 11 a.m. By tradition, this award winner is not named until the day of the ceremony. The ceremony is open to all members of the public.

The public is also encouraged to meet with City staff throughout the two-day celebration by stopping by the many informational displays. This year, staff is featuring a historical perspective about their department at each display. For more information, visit StateoftheCity.inSunnyvale.com, or call (408) 730-7472, TDD (408) 730-7501.
