

BOOKMARK CONTEST

Celebrate Summer Reading and help us design a special Library bookmark. Create original artwork using the theme “How Does the Library Color Your World?”

Two winners (one adult, one youth) will have their artwork printed on Sunnyvale Public Library bookmarks to be distributed in the library. We will post the artwork of runners up on the Library’s social media pages.

Who can participate? All Sunnyvale Public Library card holders.

How long does the contest run? Submissions accepted July 1 to 31, 2021. Winner announced in August.

How do I participate? Bring in your original art, along with a completed submission form to the Information Desk in the Sunnyvale Public Library, 665 W. Olive Ave.

- Artwork must be 2 ¾” by 8 ½” on paper no thicker than 3/8” (template attached)
- All mediums accepted, provided they fit the required dimensions.

Judging Criteria:

1. Interpretation of theme
2. Originality
3. Creativity
4. Artistic merit

By entering the contest, each contestant warrants and represents that submissions are the contestant’s sole and original work. Further, contestants release, discharge, indemnify, and agree to hold harmless the City of Sunnyvale and its members, and representatives from all claims, damages, demands, obligations, or losses of any kind related to this contest. I allow my design to be posted on the Sunnyvale Public Library social media accounts.

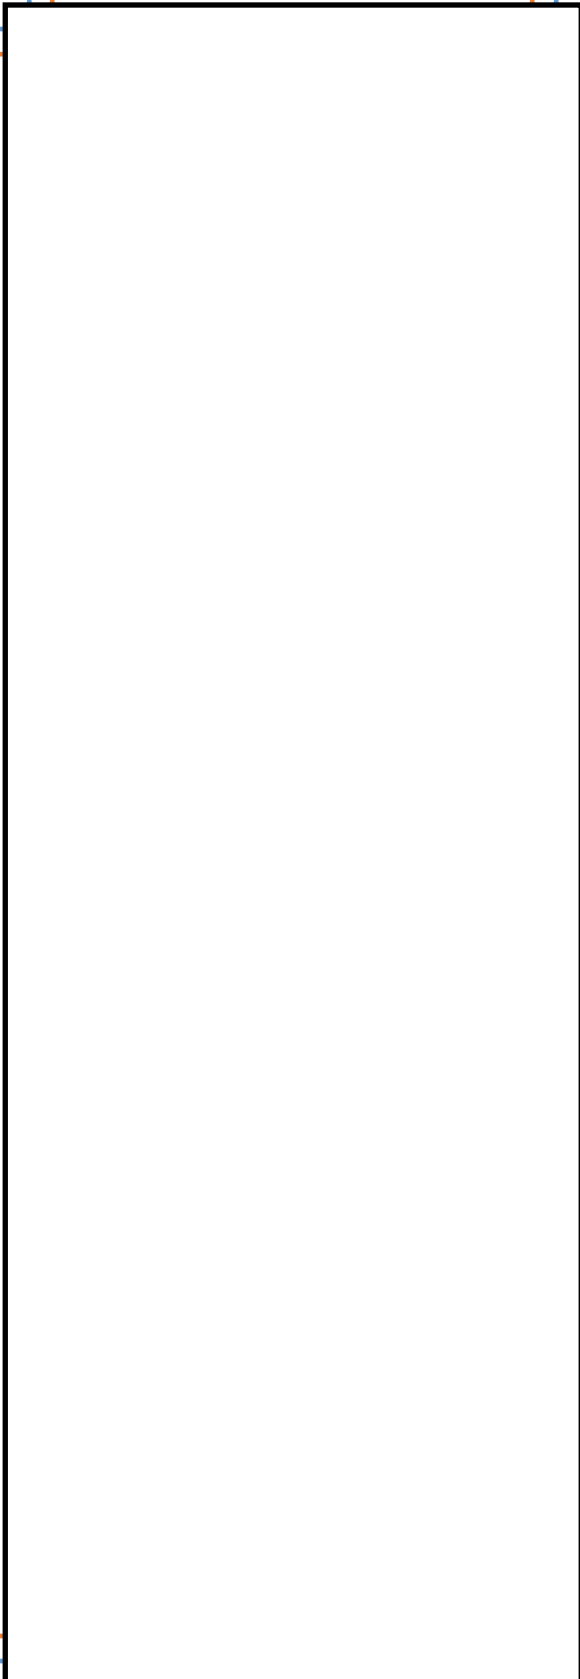

Pledge of Originality: I declare that my artwork is original work and was not copied from another artists’ work and that no other hands were involved in the production. The entry is the contestant’s own creation and idea.
